DUTCH ROCK TO PERFORM FOR SUMMITS

Defeat of Brigham Puts the Gunners Half Game Back of League Leaders

SMITHFIELD and Ogden will cross bats at Lorin Farr park at 2:30 p. m. today in a league contest that promises action from the first inning onward.

Dutch Rock, until a few days ago a member of the pitching staff of the San Francisco club of the Pacific Coast league, will do the chucking for the Gunners in today's contest. Rock was released to one of the clubs in the Texas league for further seasoning by the Seals but refused to report.

Two years ago he was a member of the famous Smithfield team which won 16 successive games. Since that time Rock has developed further, it is claimed.

Manager Carl Peterson was undecided last night as to who he would start on the firing line. Bullet Ben Jones may work in today's game although Ned Niles appears to be the man who will hike to the slab at the opening.

With two tough games on the card this week for Brigham, Manager Peterson may use Jones today and Niles in the game at Brigham Wednesday.

Percy "Hal" Chavez, new shortfielder of the Gunners, will cavort around the short patch this afternoon. Chavez has been a sensation on the Pacific Coast and was recommended highly to the Ogden directors by Skipper Duffy Lewis of the Salt Lake Bees.

Chavez was a wonder with the Bees in the spring training season and was carried for six weeks after the Bees broke camp. He needs just a little seasoning and then—better baseball for the youngsters.

KEEN PLAYER. Percy Matthews, a hard hitting outfielder from San Leandro, Cal., will also appear in a Gunner unit today. Matthews is rated a player of the first order. Manager Lewis has strings attached to both Matthews and Chavez and expects them to develop into seasoned players before the close of the league season in August.

The defeat of Brigham at the hands of Logan Saturday puts Ogden but one half a game behind the Peaches in the percentage column. A victory today over the Gunners will place Ogden on even terms with Brigham. In the last order, Manager Lewis has strings attached to both Matthews and Chavez and expects them to develop into seasoned players before the close of the league season in August.
